SUMMARY

A dedicated E-commerce student at the University of Information Technology (UIT) with a foundational background in Full-stack Web Development (ReactJS, PHP). Driven by a strong growth mindset and a genuine eagerness to learn, I view every challenge as an opportunity for self-improvement. While still in the early stages of my professional journey, I leverage my fast-learning ability and adaptability to quickly grasp new technologies. I am actively seeking a dynamic environment where I can learn from experienced mentors, continuously hone my technical skills, and contribute to the team’s success.
